

Post 16 Options

Information, Advice and Guidance for Yr 11 students

The remainder of Year 11 presents you with many challenges - not only do you need to keep on top of coursework and prepare for examination but you also need to consider your options post 16.

There are many options available for you. You may choose anything from continuing your studies by staying on in education, to work based learning or even going into employment.

To ensure you make the correct options we will provide you with high quality: -

- Information: for you and your parents/ carers on your options that is reliable and correct.
- Advice: from your form tutor, subject teachers and Connexions advisors that will help you gather information so that you can make decisions about your options.
- Guidance: from your form tutor, subject teachers and Connexions advisors that will help you find out what you really want to do, how to achieve your goals and plan what you should do next to achieve your goal.

The following programme of information, advice and guidance will be available to you and your parents/ careers to help you make the right decisions about the options available to you:
